

#ErasmusDays 2020 at Mediterranean University of Tirana

“Inclusive Erasmus+: More opportunities for academics and student”

16th October, at 10:00 – 11:30

Room No.____, UMSH, Blv Gjergj Fishta, Tirana, Albania

On the occasion of #ErasmusDays 2020, a celebration of the Erasmus+ Programme in Europe and beyond, the Mediterranean University of Tirana (UMSH) in cooperation with Centre “Science and Innovation for Development” (SCiDEV) is hosting a get together workshop for academics and students to share the opportunities offered by the Erasmus+ Programme and its future development. This workshop will also serve to present the upcoming Erasmus+ projects of UMSH. Finally, the event will be linked to a presentation of the participation of UMSH lecturers in the European Cooperation in Science and Technology (COTS Actions). The event is open to academics and students from partner universities as well. It will be organized as a face to face event all the while respecting the rules for physical distancing in lieu of the COVID19 pandemic.

Programme

10:00	Registration
10:05 – 10:10	Welcome Note Prof. Assoc. Dr. Nevila Xhindi , Mediterranean University of Tirana
10:10 – 10:20	Internationalisation through cooperation and project development Prof. Dr. Adrian Civici , Rector, Mediterranean University of Tirana
10:20 – 10:30	Erasmus+ in Albania Mrs. Ada Ramaj , Head of National Erasmus+ Office in Albania
10:30 – 10:40	COST Actions in Albania Mrs. Mirela Muça , Director General, National Agency for Scientific Research and Innovation
10:40 – 10:50	Academia and civil society collaboration – More to Erasmus+ Dr. Blerjana Bino , Co-Founder, Centre “Science and Innovation for Development”
10:50 – 11:00	COST Actions: UMSH Achievements Prof. Assoc. Dr. Nevila Xhindi , Mediterranean University of Tirana
11:00 – 11:10	Testimonials: Participating in Erasmus+ projects and COST Actions
11:10 – 11:30	Discussions and Conclusions